

The Business Acumen Canvas

A TOOL TO HELP YOU VISUALIZE THE DIMENSIONS OF BUSINESS ACUMEN

THE VISIBLE GAP

The success of any enterprise is based on two things: its products & services and its talent pool. Most firms have a grasp on the cycles of innovation and in the effective management of its products and portfolios. However, from the point of view of business talent, there are some gaps.

Based on research conducted by the Business Acumen Institute, leaders believe the most visible gap is related to the skills and capabilities that comprise 'business acumen'.

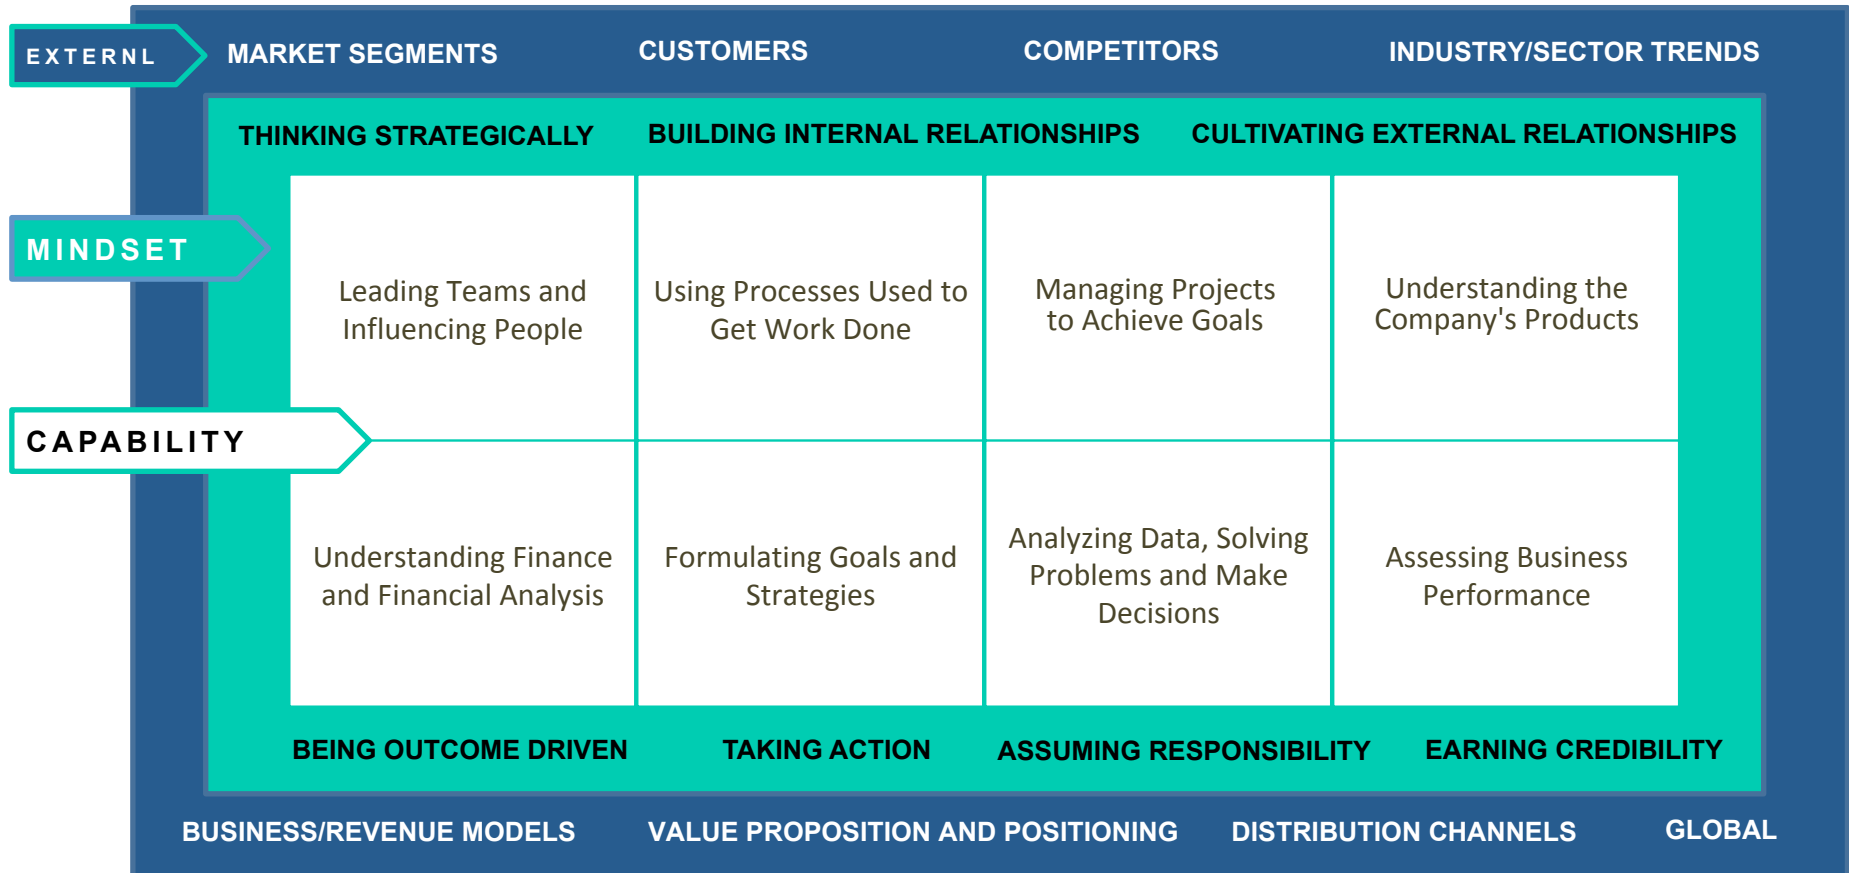

THE BUSINESS ACUMEN CANVAS

The Business Acumen Canvas is a tool that you can use to visualize the dimensions of business acumen, and to more effectively target the areas that must be cultivated. Within the context of the external environment in which the company operates, there are two distinct levels of business acumen:

- MINDSET: those characteristics that are associated with people who can see the big picture and connect the dots.
- CAPABILITY: those distinct areas that comprise the company's business activities.

We want to help you cultivate business talent so that you can more effectively compete and win in the market.
